

MC55i-W

Following up the successful MC55i wireless module, the new MC55i-W offers improved functionality while remaining compatible with its predecessor and enable an extended life cycle for customers application.

Alongside highest reliability and quality the module is based on the latest generation of 2G products offering Quad-Band, full voice capabilities and high speed GPRS class 10 data transmission and is your all-rounder of choice for board-to-board designs in machine-to-machine communication including metering, security, vending, POS and many more applications. MC55i-W offers improved features such as a significantly reduced power consumption, an extended temperature range and the new tunneling mode.

MC55i-W data sheet